

10 Epic Homeschooling Resources

Ten genuinely great — and mostly free — tools we'd hand any homeschooling parent, across reading, math, science, languages and coding. Every link works. Save it, print it, dive in.

1

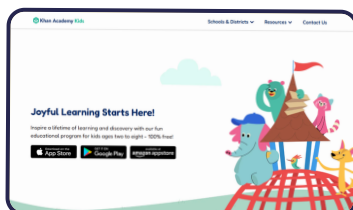

Khan Academy Everything • Math

A free, full K–12 curriculum with an AI tutor — the backbone of many homeschool days.

khanacademy.org →

2

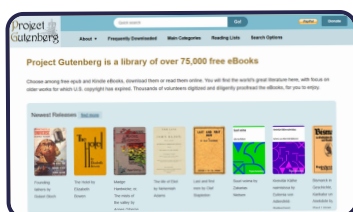

Khan Academy Kids Ages 2–8

A free app: reading, math and social-emotional learning for the early years.

khanacademy.org/kids →

3

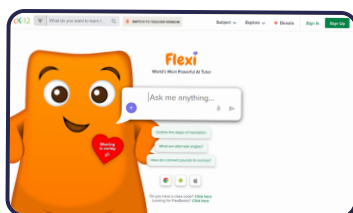

Project Gutenberg Reading • Literature

70,000+ free classic ebooks — build a home library for $0.

gutenberg.org →

4

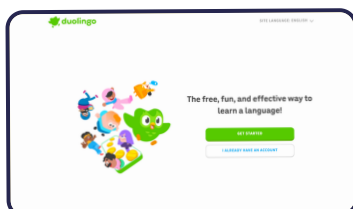

CK-12 Science • Math

Free adaptive STEM “FlexBooks” with simulations and endless practice.

ck12.org →

5

Duolingo Languages

Gamified, genuinely free language learning kids actually keep up with.

duolingo.com →

6

Nat Geo Kids Science • Geography

Animals, science and geography with videos and games kids get lost in.

kids.nationalgeographic.com →

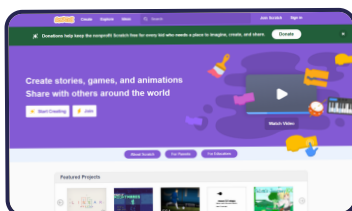

7

PBS LearningMedia All subjects

Free, standards-aligned video lessons and activities for PreK–12.

pbslearningmedia.org →

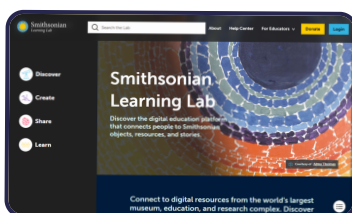

8

Scratch Coding • Creativity

Free visual coding from MIT — kids build games and animations, no setup.

scratch.mit.edu →

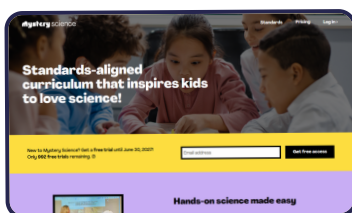

9

Smithsonian Learning Lab History • Art

Free primary sources and collections for history, art and culture.

learninglab.si.edu →

10

Mystery Science Science

Ready-made, hands-on science lessons that answer kids' real questions.

mysteryscience.com →Want learning to feel like this every day?

Unschooler is where curious families find tools, ideas and encouragement — without the busywork. It's free to start.

unschooled.io →